

Leaders vote pg3 ►

ELECTION 2008 www.maltatoday.com.mt

TURNOUT DROPS BY 3%

SEE PAGE 4 ►

EXIT POLL: Arrigo tops PN's chart in 10th district

JAMES DEBONO

AN exit poll conducted by MaltaToday reveals a surprise lead by Nationalist backbencher Robert Arrigo over other PN candidates on the 10th district.

As expected, the poll had a low response of 207 respondents and can only be used as an indication of candidates' popularity on the district. Arrigo's nearest rival in the Nationalist camp is Environment Minister George Pullicino. Surprisingly, district newcomer John Dalli got 11% of the vote.

Back in 2003 Joe Borg who was later appointed EU commissioner was the most popular candidate followed by George Pullicino.

On the Labour side Deputy Leader Michael Falzon enjoys a commanding lead over his nearest rival Evarist Bartolo. Back in 2003, Evarist Bartolo

PN front runners

	%
Robert Arrigo	15.9
George Pullicino	13.5
John Dalli	11.1
Francis Zammit Dimech	8.9
Michael Frendo	8.2

MLP front runners

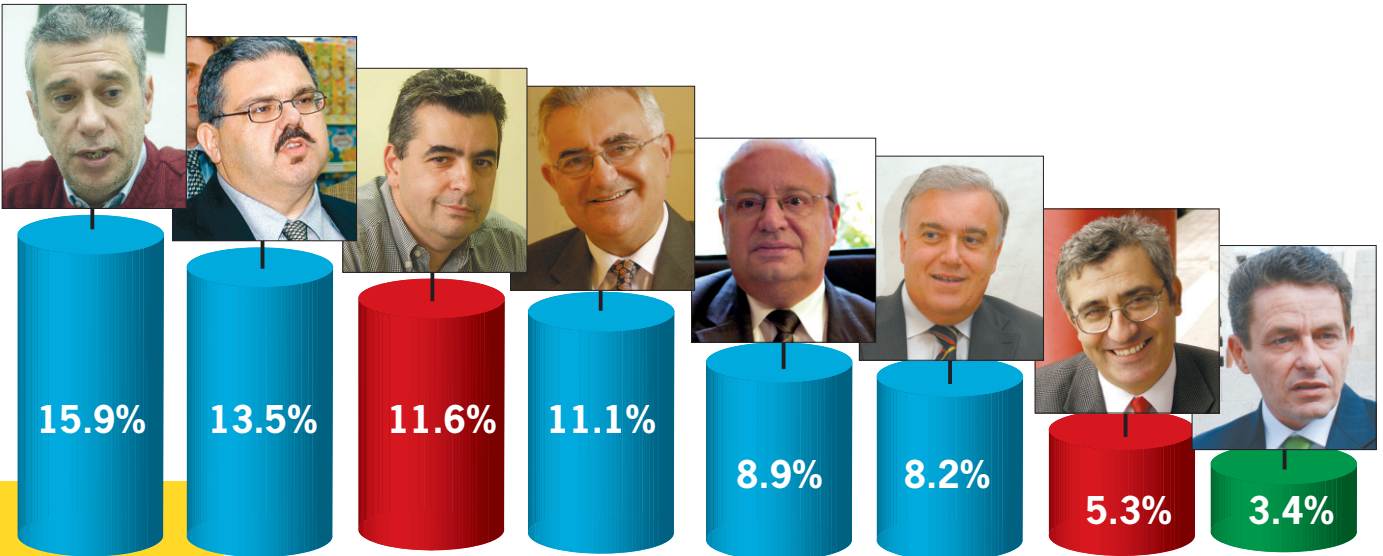

Michael Falzon	11.6
Evarist Bartolo	5.3

AD

Harry Vassallo	3.4
----------------	-----

was the most popular candidate.

In the exit poll, Green Party leader Harry Vassallo was the choice of 3.4% of respondents. Five years ago AD garnered the support of 1.1%.

ELECTION SPECIAL
4-page pull-out inside

Malta's finest.

The March Living Room Event

LILIANA PORTELLI | The St. James Cavalier | Costume and Set Designer | A passion for theatre and performing arts. SOFA: Ethno, by Doimo

Exclusive offers on all our living room brands.

fino
www.fino.com.mt