

Scicluna 'considers' Muscat's invitation to stand with MLP

Karl Schembri

ECONOMIST Edward Scicluna is "actively considering" contesting the European Parliament election with the Malta Labour Party after he was personally approached by MLP leader Joseph Muscat.

MaltaToday can reveal that Muscat asked the renowned professor to contest on the Labour ticket in the last days, as rumours that the MLP was planning to announce a star candidate for the upcoming June elections abounded.

2 >>

The end of workers' participation

Peter Serracino Inglott speaks out page 11 >

Home Affairs Minister Tonio Borg interviewed

page 12, 13 >

'Ibambluhulek'

Saviour Balzan page 19, 20 >

Changing Labour: from the logo to the Brigata

Backpage >

After the vandals, government threatens Mellieha Foresta 2000

The Ghadira nature reserve threatened by a road in 1966 and 1982 together with FORESTA 2000 targeted by vandals last year will be destroyed by an EU-funded road, if approved. And the Danish village tourist complex is threatening to close down if the road goes ahead – Full story on page 6 >

INSIDE

Editorial .....	25
Letters .....	23-24,26
Cinema & TV .....	33
Eric German.....	32
Mona's meals .....	28-29
Foreign news.....	44
Business .....	45
Weekly headlines.....	59
Classifieds.....	46
Sports.....	54
Weather & Info .....	59
UBET.....	50

That's why mom's prefer Miracle Foods!

Whole Octopus

Only €4.79 per kg

