Superyachts: ministry claims no collusion in Palumbo-Midi bid

The finance ministry is rebutting claims that it allowed the collusion of two bidders to present a higher offer for the Malta Superyachts (MSYS) privatisation, a process now mired in controversy after being twice stalled by the privatisation unit.

The two firms were separate bidders and not even shortlisted as 'preferred bidders', until the PU stopped the process in November 2009 and asked all bidders to resubmit new offers.
