Why were BWSC's 'Christmas gifts' ignored by Enemalta?

The memo forming part of a Danish investigation into BWSC chief executive officer Soren Barkholt (pictured, left, in Malta last year) in which he suggests small Christmas gifts amounting to $90,000 to remove the 'doubt' of a Filipino official in Subic Bay, where BWSC also operates.

From parent company Mitsui down to BWSC's subcontractors, Enemalta ignored all previous allegations on the Delimara bidders, while BWSC filed statements of good conduct page 5
