Corruption allegations into superyachts privatisation: investigation concerns invitation to tenderers to 'grease wheels' of evaluation process

Police call in Mimcol CEO

MATTHEW VELLA

THE chief executive of Mimcol, Mario Mizzi, has been called in for interrogation by the Commissioner of Police in the ongoing investigation launched last week into corruption allegations on the privatisation process for the Malta Superyachts. MaltaToday is informed Mizzi, long-standing head of the government's investment arm, was summoned to the police headquarters last week, after Prime Minister Lawrence Gonzi reported the allegations – first made back in September 2009 – on Monday.
